2026 Tri Series Development Squad Q&A

What is the Development Squad?

These are the next best 8 QLD Jester players, 8 QLD Fury and 8 QLD Rebel players as per selections after all 3 Tri Series Teams have been named. They are not selected in positions but on overall finishing rank from the State Cup weekend selections.

Note: Development squad is listed in alphabetical order of the club not shadow order.

Will the Development Squad Play anyone?

No, these players are players that can be called into their relevant Tri Series Team at any stage in the lead up to the tournament to replace players who are withdrawing.

Do Development Squad Players need to order a uniform and pay registration?

To secure your position of potentially being called into a team ALL Development Squad Players are to pay registration and order a complete uniform (with shirt number)

What happens if the Development Squad player does not get called into a team?

All Development Squad players who are not called into a Tri Series Team will be offered a registration refund – you will still receive your uniform that you paid for

Where do I register as a Development Squad Player?

As a Development Squad player you are required to register into the team that you were selected as a Development Squad player for. Eg. If you are selected as a Development Squad player for the U11 Girls Jesters then you are to register into the U11 Girls Jester team.

Where can I get more info?

Simply call Queensland Oztag on 1300 469 824.